Walmart Transportation Awards Carriers of the Year for 2015

Twelve Carriers Receive Honor

BENTONVILLE, Ark., April 11, 2016 - As one of the world's largest industries, the transportation industry is a vital part of the U.S. economy. According to the American Trucking Association, there are approximately 3.5 million truck drivers and 8 million employees moving nearly 10 billion tons of freight for over $800 billion in revenue annually in the United States. Walmart Transportation has awarded 12 trucking and transportation partners as part of the retailer's 2015 Carriers of the Year.

Walmart has awarded the designation to companies that provide transportation support to Walmart stores, Sam's Club's and distribution facilities located throughout the continental U.S. Over the past year, each of these selected carriers have demonstrated a dedication to customer service and a commitment to creating innovative solutions in an evolving yet, extremely important, business.
